Writing

Text Types and Purposes

- 16 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing multiple point(s) of view and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. Use and evaluate a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome. Use precise words and phrases, effective details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences events, setting, and/or characters. Provide a purposeful resolution or deliberate lack thereof (e.g. a cliffhanger) that follows from and reflects on what is experienced and/or observed over the course of the narrative. ELA.C.16
- 17 Write poems to develop real or imagined experiences, events, topics, or ideas using effective technique, and well-chosen details. Use and evaluate a variety of techniques, structures, and styles that build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome. Use precise words and phrases, effective details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences events, setting, and/or characters. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and figurate language to manage the complexity of the topic. ELA.C.17
- 18 Write short works of drama to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing multiple point(s) of view and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, stage-directions, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. Use and evaluate a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome. Use precise words and phrases, effective details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences events, setting, and/or characters. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative. Demonstrate and apply knowledge of elements of drama in creation of an original work. ELA.C.18
- 19 Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of prose, poetry or drama, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s); establish the significance of the claim(s); distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence. Develop and justify claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases. Analyze words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented. ELA.C.19

- 20 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting, graphics, and multimedia when useful to aid comprehension. Evaluate the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic. Use and evaluate appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as figurative language and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented. ELA.C.20

Production and Distribution of Writing

- 21 Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience ELA.C.21
- 22 Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, trying a new approach, or editing, demonstrating a command of Language standards up to and including the current grade level and focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience. ELA.C.22
- 23 Use technology, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback. ELA.C.23

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

- 24 Conduct ongoing research to carefully examine and/or evaluate an aspect of a literary work; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources, demonstrating understanding of the work under investigation. ELA.C.24
- 25 Gather and synthesize relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation (MLA or APA). ELA.C.25

Range of Writing

- 26 Write routinely over extended time frames (for research, reflection, and/or revision) and shorter time frames for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences. Maintain multiple drafts and revisions of original works to reflect growth and development in the writer’s craft over time. CW 26

Speaking and Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

- 27 Initiate and effectively participate in a range of collaborative discussions with diverse partners including one-on-one, small group, and teacher-led on grade level topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing ideas clearly and persuasively. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making; set clear goals and deadlines; establish norms and experience various individual roles. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize and evaluate comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task. ELA.C.27
- 28 Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media in order to examine and/or evaluate an aspect of a literary work, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and analyzing any discrepancies among the data. ELA.C.28
- 29 Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and uses of evidence and language, in order to assess the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used among multiple speakers; give thoughtful feedback and accept feedback graciously. ELA.C.29

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

- 30 Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning; address alternative or opposing perspectives and determine if the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience and a range of formal and informal tasks. ELA.C.30
- 31 Make strategic and engaging use of digital media in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest. ELA.C.31
- 32 Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of Language standards up to and including the current grade level as well as formal English, when indicated or appropriate. ELA.C.32

Language

Conventions of Standard English

- 33 Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and is sometimes contested. Resolve issues of complex or contested usage, consulting references as needed. ELA.C.33
 - 34 Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. ELA.C.34

Knowledge of Language

- 35 Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening. Vary syntax for effect, consulting references for guidance as needed; apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts when reading. ELA.C.35

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

- 36 Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 12 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. Use context as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech. Consult general and specialized reference materials, both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, etymology, or standard usage. Verify the initial determination of the meaning of a word or phrase. ELA.C.36
- 37 Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. Interpret figures of speech in context and analyze their role in the text. Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations. ELA.C.37
- 38 Acquire and accurately use general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college- and career-readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
